WHY CHOOSE AWH?

ABOUT US

Albury Wodonga Health (AWH) is the primary health service for the provincial cities of Albury and Wodonga and a regional referral service for northeast Victoria and Southern NSW.

The health service was created in July 2009, with the amalgamation of Wodonga Regional Health Service and Albury Base Hospital, to become the only cross-border health service in Australia.

AWH provides 270 beds over two acute sites and offers a broad range of clinical services, including:

- General Medicine & Subspecialties
- Medical Oncology & Haematology
- General Surgery & Subspecialties
- Orthopaedics
- ENT
- Urology
- Emergency & ICU
- Anaesthetics
- Paediatrics
- Obstetrics & Gynaecology
- Psychiatry
- Rehabilitation & Geriatrics

FAQ's

Q: Will I be paid overtime?

A: Yes! All un-rostered overtime for Interns and HMOs needs pre-approval, but if you follow the correct procedure, you will be paid for overtime worked.

CATCHMENT AREA

AWH provides a comprehensive range of acute, sub-acute, mental health, ambulatory, community and primary health services for its catchment population of more than 250,000.

AWH is the largest regional health service in Victoria outside Geelong, with more than 64,000 emergency department presentations, 39,000 inpatient episodes and 1600 births per year.

Q: Do I have to work nights?

A: No! Interns are not required to work overnight on the ward. Rostered weekend and evening shifts on the ward finish at 2200. HMO's (PGY2+) are required to work nights in some rotations (ED and Ward Cover).

SUPPORTING YOUR GROWTH, BUILDING YOUR FUTURE....

At Albury Wodonga Health, our Medical Specialists and Consultants provide an extensive range of inpatient services, elective procedures and emergency care.

Our Junior Medical Officers and IMG's are supported by their Consultants and Registrars, who are readily accessible, and provide excellent learning opportunities and hands-on experiences.

Strong day-to-day support, along with protected intern teaching and faculty specific education offerings, make Albury Wodonga Health the perfect place to kick start your career in Medicine.

AWH's Medical Education Officer coordinates the education program for junior medical staff. Interns receive one hour of protected teaching time each week.

EXPERIENCE THE LIFESTYLE...

CITY COMFORTS, CULTURE AND NATURE AT YOUR DOORSTEP

Albury-Wodonga is a cross-border city situated on the impressive Murray River and borders the spectacular Victorian High Country and NSW Riverina.

Albury-Wodonga is home to around 100,000 people, making it the third-largest inland city in Australia. The region has a growing population, and both visitors and locals enjoy the nature, food, wineries and recreational activities it has to offer.
