Violence and aggression are not an acceptable part of anyone's job. Staff have a right to a safe workplace. Patients and visitors have the right to be safe when they are in our facilities. This module will help you understand how you can keep yourself and others safe in your workplace.

Using arresting and sometimes confronting situations this module will increase your awareness about personal safety to help you to:

- recognise escalating behaviour and intervene early or summon assistance
- make the environment safer for everyone
- not miss the opportunity to make a difference and keep yourself and others safe.
