

JMO of the Year Award – Nomination Form

The Health Education and Training Institute (HETI) is calling for nominations for the JMO of the Year Award.

The JMO of the Year Award is awarded by HETI to a junior doctor who has made a substantial contribution to the education and support of prevocational trainees in NSW. Nominees must be a PGY1 or PGY2; PGY3 trainees may be nominated however contributions must be restricted to their PGY1 and/or PGY2 years.

Nominations for the JMO of the Year Award can be made by any prevocational stakeholder including DPETs, JMO Managers or other stakeholders.

Nominations close at 5.00pm, Friday 11 August 2023. The Prevocational Training Council (PvTC) will assess all eligible applications.

1. Details of nominee:

Surname
Given Names
Postal Address
State		Postcode
Position/Title and PG Year
Current Organisation
Contact Number
Email Address
Previous Honours & Awards

2. Details of the person making this nomination:

Title (e.g. Prof. Dr. Mr, Ms)
Surname
Given Names
Postal Address
State		Postcode
Position/Title
Organisation
Contact Number
Email Address

3. Provide details of how your nominee meets the criteria for the award. Address each of the following sections:

A significant contribution to teaching and learning as a prevocational trainee (PGY1 and/or PGY2) in their workplace settings (prevocational training providers, community placements, etc).

Any special contributions to education and training such as project work, publications, posters, etc. These may include presentations to International, National and State conferences.

A significant contribution to the activities of HETI or any other organisation involved in the education and training of junior doctors.

Evidence of improving opportunities for education and training in rural health.

Any other relevant information you wish to include.

Nominations should be marked CONFIDENTIAL and forwarded to the contact person below by 5.00pm, Friday 11 August 2023:

Ms Dilini Premarathne
Support Officer
Email: Manondra.Premarathne@health.nsw.gov.au