

Publishing your Research – Publish or Perish?

Wednesday, 3 March 2021, 6:00PM – 7:00PM (AEDT)

Join Laureate Professor Nicholas Talley, an academic clinician, researcher and scientist for this valuable webinar on publishing research. Professor Talley draws on his distinguished research career which includes the publication of over 1,000 original and review articles in the peer-reviewed literature.

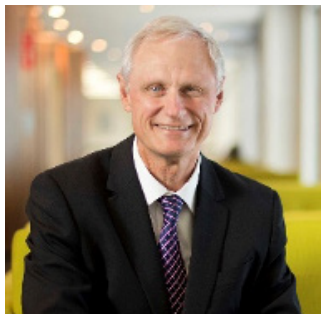

During the webinar Professor Talley will discuss the need to publish research in peer reviewed journals, how to do this and what journals are looking for in your submission. He will also share his expertise on avoiding common pitfalls when submitting to journals.

Discussion following the webinar will be facilitated by Professor Balakrishnan (Kichu) Nair AM.
