

Preparatory Course for the Part I RANZCR Applied Imaging Technology (Physics) Exam

2024 Course Details

This program has been developed for candidates preparing for the Part I Examination of Applied Imaging Technology
(Part I Physics for Radiologists).

WHERE:	Seminar Room 1 in the Radiology Department at Westmead Hospital. Radiology is located on Level 2, in Block F, Diagnostic Building.
TIME & DAY:	6.00 pm to 8.00 pm Tuesday evenings for 21 weeks. Light refreshment included. Some lectures may run a little past 8 pm.
COURSE DATES:	From Tuesday 6 February 2024 to Tuesday 2 July 2024 inclusive. (NB: No lecture on Tuesday 2 April following the Easter Long Weekend).
COURSE CO-ORDINATOR:	Mr David Skerrett, Director of Medical Physics, WSLHD.
ELIGIBILITY:	The course is open to accredited Radiology Registrars as well as Junior Medical Officers planning a career in Radiology.
COST:	$1600.00.
FORMAT:	19 weeks of lectures. Week 20 (25 June) - 'Trial / Mock' Exam Week 21 (2 July) - Review of Exam Questions & Exam Technique and issuing of attendance and exam certificates.
COURSE ADMINISTRATION CONTACT:	Pamela Dougan, Admin Research Assistant, Radiology Department, 8890 7805 or 8890 6522. Please email Pamela.Dougan@health.nsw.gov.au for a copy of the course timetable and registration details. Registration will open in December.